

FAQ

Are placements assured?

Cyber Physical Systems is an inter / multidisciplinary spectrum which covers and oversees a plethora of technological segments. Hence, graduates from this program should be able to pursue a career in below segments, but not limited to :

1. Research Engineers / Fellows.
2. Director / Manager Innovations
3. Technical Managers
4. Systems Engineers
5. Technical Analysts
6. Security Specialists
7. Data Scientists and Analytics
8. Machine Learning Engineers / Consultants
9. IOT consultants
10. Process Engineers

Data Science is a very demanding discipline across the entire globe, including Sri Lanka. Students` who successfully pursue this qualification can secure placements / opportunities as :-

1. Data Scientists
2. Business Intelligence Engineers.
3. Machine Learning Engineers / Consultants
4. Business Analytics
5. Tech-Leads
6. Research Engineers / Fellows.
7. Director / Manager Innovations
8. Engineering Managers

There are ample opportunities for such designations across the island and overseas as well. Hence, individuals with requisite skill sets will have secured opportunities.

What are the typical industries that are open to CPS graduates?

The typical industries that graduates of this programme could operate on will be :
Software Development, Electronics and Telecommunication, Manufacture and Factory operations, Robotics and smart solution development, etc...

FAQ

What are the typical industries that are open to CPS graduates?

The typical industries they could operate on will be : -
Software Development, Electronics and Telecommunication, Manufacture and Factory operations, robotics and smart solution development, Banks, Hospitals, Universities for analytics and automation roles etc....

How much is the typical package these graduates would receive?

It depends on the organization. A potential range would be 400K – 2 million in Sri Lankan rupees. If the graduate can operate in foreign market it could be more than the aforementioned range.

What are the facilities available for the students?

24 X 7 operated canteens, gymnasium, medical services, student recreation areas, library facilities, sport facilities, computer and hardware laboratory requirements

What about accommodation?

Hostel facilities are available along with 24 x 7 operational canteens.

How about safety?

Hostels are governed by separate male and female wardens. University premises are covered by security services. They are located in a very calm and green atmosphere.