ABOUT VMLS

With the founding vision of creating the law school of the future, VMLS admitted its first cohort of students in 2021. Mentorship from India's finest law school, Jindal Global Law School, and a committed team of full-time faculty members, many of whom are trained in globally renowned institutions, have resulted in pedagogic innovations at VMLS that make it a frontrunner in equipping learners with the skills, knowledge, exposure, and specializations required for professional success in the AI age. The state-of-the-art infrastructure, including smart classrooms, a well-stocked library with a strong digital backbone, and a regal moot court hall, support in this endeavour by creating the ambience for our students to immerse in the vibrant campus life. VMLS prides itself in its focus on inclusivity and providing bilingual support so that no learner is left behind.

FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

Vinayaka Mission's Law School is unique in not only its vision – excellence through inclusivity, and a steadfast emphasis on digital futures and global transitions – but also its governance model. We are the first Indian institution to be mentored by another private law school, arguably India's finest at that – the Jindal Global Law School, and Jindal Global University, an institution of eminence. The active Mentoring Committee created under this one-of-its-kind mentorship agreement consists of eminent senior lawyers and distinguished academics, who steer VMLS towards its goals and vision. At VMLS, we spend all our energies unraveling what the law school of the future means, and should aspire to achieve.

M.Navitha

B.A LLB (Hons.) II Year

The Moot Court competitions at VMLS has been instrumental in honing my advocacy skills. Participating in simulated courtroom proceedings has given me hands-on experience in crafting persuasive arguments and presenting them effectively. The feedback and guidance from faculty members and peers have been invaluable in improving my oral advocacy skills and boosting my confidence.
