FOUNDING PHILOSOPHY OF THE PROGRAMMES: WHAT WILL BE TAUGHT?

The functions of law in society

Law is the network of human relations

Human interactions in social markets

Market is the social site of human interactions

Rule of law

Social order is a legal order in politics, trade, and commerce

5-Year programmes teach students law through social facts as they manifest in politics, trade, and commerce. Knowledge of social facts provides students a sense of being social subjects and knowledge of law helps them understand the organization and dynamics of society.

NOTE OF CLARIFICATION & EXPLANATION ON CHOOSING THE B.COM LL.B. (HONS), B.B.A. LL.B. (HONS) or B.A. LL.B. (HONS) PROGRAMME @ JGLS

1

Identical and Equal Programmes: The B.Com LL.B. (Hons), B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons), and B.A. LL.B. (Hons) are all identical 5-year Law degree programmes. They are absolutely equal in law and otherwise. There is practically no difference in all the three courses so far as their validity, use or legal value is concerned. They entitle you to become qualified lawyers in the same way and do not in any way differ from each other when it comes to being recognised or respected in the legal community.

2

Same Law Subjects: It is important to recognise that the Bar Council of India prescribed courses/subjects in law are exactly same in all three programmes. The only difference is that in the first two years of study, a B.Com LL.B. (Hons) student studies courses in commerce and accountancy, the B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons) student studies courses in business and management and B.A. LL.B. (Hons) student studies courses in social sciences and humanities. But this also does not have any major impact because this is a law programme and your law related subjects do not change.

3

Law Degree: The B.Com LL.B. (Hons), B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons), and B.A. LL.B. (Hons) are Law degrees and NOT a B.Com, B.B.A., or B.A. degrees. So all the three programmes are equal and same.

4

No difference in corporate legal careers and opportunities: Evidence has proved that there is no difference in career opportunities for a B.Com LL.B. (Hons), B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons), and B.A. LL.B. (Hons) in law firms or companies where students seek a career in corporate law.

Your Interest should help you decide: If you have commerce background or you like subjects like accountancy, business studies, etc., you should opt for the B.Com LL.B. (Hons) programme. If you enjoy and prefer studying courses in business, management, marketing, etc., you should choose B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons) programme. If you enjoy and take interest in studying courses in social sciences and humanities like political science, history, sociology, economics, English etc., you should choose B.A. LL.B. (Hons).

5

No Mathematics in B.Com LL.B. (Hons) or B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons): Mathematics is not a mandatory course in B.Com LL.B. (Hons), or B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons) programme. Students who do not wish to study mathematics as a part of their B.Com LL.B. (Hons), or B.B.A. LL.B. (Hons) curriculum are absolutely free to do so. There is absolutely NO advantage or disadvantage of pursuing one programme over the other. All the three 5-year law programmes are absolutely equal and same in terms of their value and learning potential.

6

Note: This note of guidance is being issued to help you make an informed decision. You may feel free to take advice of your family and friends. As all the programmes are equal, you must stick to the decision you make while choosing your option at the time of making fee payment.
